

Prestigious sustainability award to Xavi and Genexis

Genexis, the product company of Inteno Group, and its ODM partner Xavi have received the prestigious JAC sustainability and CSR certification.

The Joint Audit Cooperation (JAC, jac-initiative.com) is a collective of 17 telecommunication companies, including Telia, Telenor, KPN, Elisa, AT&T, Deutsche Telekom and Vodafone. The purpose is to promote safe and fair working conditions as well as responsible, social and environmental management by verifying, assessing and promoting sustainability standards and transfer of best practice across the supply chain.

“We are proud to receive this award as a proof of our sustainability process. It shows our focus on high quality and long term partnership has been very successful”, says Tony Chen, President and General Manager of Xavi Technologies Corporation.

“The Inteno group of companies and Xavi have been partners for more than 15 years. The long-standing cooperation between the companies facilitates the important work in sustainability, corporate social responsibility and environmental aspects”, says Conny Franzen, CEO of Inteno Group.
